

Ruckus at Red Rock 2012

possibly

The World's Largest and Most Spectacular Shooting Event Ever Held

Here's who we're thinkin' might show up so far (4/16/2012). Sorry if the info isn't totally keyrect. The dang bastard who updates this only sobers up now and then, so just cuz yer name is on the list don't necessarily mean yer paid and registered, and just cuz yer name ain't on the list don't mean ya ain't paid and registered. This is what all ya'all might call a cowboy disclaimer. We'll see ya when we see ya.

The Dixie Desperados welcome all ya'all to southern Utah Territory and the 2012 Ruckus at Red Rock (April 19-21). Pay attention now, on account of this is really important and may be necessary to yer survival.

Thursday is side match day and it's gonna be busier than a Utah beehive. We'd be obliged iff'n a bunch of ya'all would jump in and help us out in keeping the bays manned, and runnin' this side-match circus. Side match shootin' starts at 8:45 a.m. There's a mini-match at 1:00 p.m. for those who signed up and paid.

Plainsman event is at 6:00 p.m. Come on baby light my fire. Just go to where the lights are on. Plan on 3 stages, total 20 rifle rounds, 30 pistol, 14+ shotgun. This is a black powder event involving nipples, greased balls, fireworks, and big bore single shot rifles. Hell, this is better than Vegas. Why would you want to be anywhere else that evening?

Friday and Saturday things get goin' at 8:45 a.m., Utah time. HELLO Arizona, Nevada and west coast shooters – that's 7:45 a.m. for you.

Side match awards will be at 12 Noon on Friday, during lunch, which is free, unless you want to get philosophical about free lunches. Right after side match awards, the long range event will start at approx. 1 p.m.

On Saturday a 6 person Team shoot and top gun shoot-off will follow the 6 main stages of the day. Social will begin at 5:30 p.m. with entertainment, great food and awards.

Lodging: If you haven't already arranged for lodging we can probably reserve a spot for you and yer bedroll a'neath someone's wagon. More civilized accommodations can be searched for online at www.utahsdixie.com. There is plenty of FREE dry camping at the range. If ya camp at the range, please do not disturb or molest any wildlife – our rattlers add to the ambience. An RV dump station is located near I-15 off Hwy 9 at the Shell station / Arby's at Coral Canyon (2-3 miles from the range).

We hope this answers most of your questions. If you need anything else just cowboy up and pretend you know what yer doin'. That usually works for us.

See ya soon,
